IV.—HON. SPEAKER'S CONCLUDING SPEECH.

MR. SPEAKER : Now, we have been sitting in Ootacamund for the last 10 days. We have discussed the Electricity Board's budget. We have also discussed in great detail very many important Bills. Though they have been referred to Select Committees, hon. Members have expressed their opinion freely and given very valuable suggestions. To all hon. Members who have enabled me to finish this session of 10 days in a very happy manner and in a very successful manner, I want to offer my sincerest thanks. I can also say that the attendance of the hon. Members in this session compares very favourably with the attendance in other sessions, and if I may be permitted to say, it is far better than what it was during the Budget Session in Madras. (Cheers.) Of course, there might have been various causes as to why they could not come to the Madras session. But the fact remains that we have had at Ootacamund on an average, 170 members. There are many people who have made this session a grand success. The district officials have been very kind and have attended to the comforts of the hon. Members in as best a manner as possible. They have taken the hon. Members to the various interesting places and areas round about Ootacamund like the Kundah Project, the Staff College, Wellington, Lawrence Memorial School, Lovedale, Wild Life Sanctuary, Mudumalai, Soil Conservation Schemes and many other things under great personal inconvenience to them. On your behalf, I should now like to offer our grateful thanks to all of them. (Cheers.)

We have been entertained rather lavishly by the Governor, by the Chairman of the Ootacamund Municipal Council and by a Committee of Hosts. To them all, we must offer our thanks. We must be very grateful to the English-speaking children of this place, the tribal groups and the various other people who have taken very great pains to entertain us. On your behalf and on my own, I shall tender my grateful thanks to all of them. (Cheers.)

To the Press, who have been always very kind to us and who have reported our proceedings in a very correct and nice manner, we shall always be grateful.

Last, but not least, I shall say how grateful we are to the public of Ootacamund who have come in such large numbers to witness our Proceedings. I do hope they have appreciated our work. I have already given figures relating to the number of visitors up to yesterday. Today, we have had 1,187 visitors who came to witness our proceedings, thus making a total of 6,003 visitors for these ten days. Of course, I must apologise to them for the inconvenience caused. But I would request them to appreciate that it was because of the fact that we have not got enough accommodation for a large number of visitors. Therefore, we were forced to vacate the visitors' galleries sometimes every half an hour and sometimes every fifteen minutes. They will please excuse us when they realise that we had to do that in order to enable a large number of people anxious to come and witness our proceedings. It has been a very great pleasure to see them all. I do hope they are pleased with us. I hope also that hon. Members will leave Ootacamund with very happy and pleasant memories. Whether we will come back here again is left to the hon. Members and I shall not express any opinion on that.

I now adjourn the House sine die.

The House then adjourned sine die.
